Foreword

This is our Golden Year and with it we hope to bring Golden Memories which will stay with you forever.

"Spirit," our theme, is the foundation for the progress that is visible in our community and school; the spirit of successes, failures and friendships.

When our school has completed still another half-century, we hope this Golden Bluff will still be cherished by all.

Dedication

To Dr. Lauren Schwisow

Your knowledge of life is far beyond compare. Your fairness and willing assistance have gained you great admiration.

Your friendly smile has met and guided us down the halls of S.H.S. No student should leave Scottsbluff High without becoming acquainted with you. for you secure self-confidence when things look bad.

The theme of our Golden yearbook is spirit, and you, Dr. Schwisow. are truly the spirit of learning, cooperation and friendship.

For your understanding of Scottsbluff High School and its students, we proudly dedicate to you, the 1958 Golden Bluff.

THE BLUFF STAFF

Dr. Schwisow shows his school spirit as he congratulates Coach Bill Conner after the Big Ten win.

After two years as Vice Principal of Scottsbluff High, Dr. Schwisow seems to enjoy his work thoroughly.

A former Bearcat coach, Dr. Schwisow commands the attention of the student body at an athletic assembly.

STUDENT COUNCIL REPRESENTATIVES—Kris Gordon, Carol Irish, Judy Kraft, Kent Green.

As freshmen we knew all there was to know . . . as sophomores we knew a little less . . . as juniors we began to see how little we really knew . . . as seniors we realize how much we have left to learn.

However, we take more with us than a diploma as we leave here. We take with us the joys and heartaches of growing up together in one world.

The memories we take with us from the halls of S.H.S. will never be forgotten. In the years that pass, we will put them aside but they will always remain there to be remembered.

The long-awaited day of graduation has drawn near, and as we look down the halls we realize that it is not with joy, but a sadness that we leave all that we have experienced and shared for the past thirteen years.

Yes, for the seniors of Scottsbluff High School these have truly been our Golden Years. As the years pass and the memories fade these years will not tarnish and grow dim, but remain everlastingly bright.

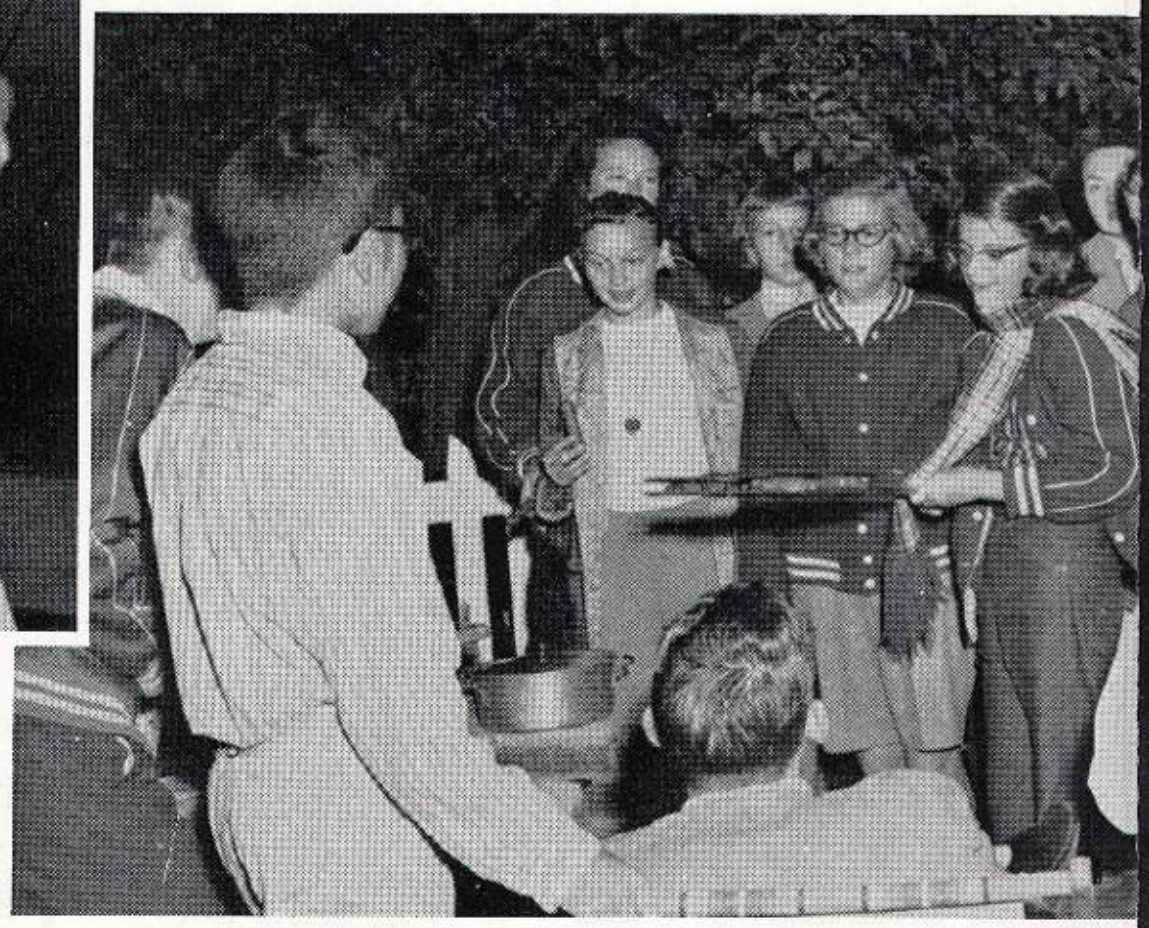
"The Spirit of Scottsbluff High"

Vacation Ends, School Begins

Eighth graders cook up some fun at their class party.

Foreign Exchange Student Cynthia Nuzzi receives the key to the city from Mayor Walter.



Here they come—the new Ashmoleon Marching Society and Students' Conservatory Band.

Wipe that opinion off your face!
Ann Williams

Here We Go Again

Oh, the agony of it all!
Galen Schwaner, Joe Steele, Sid Micek

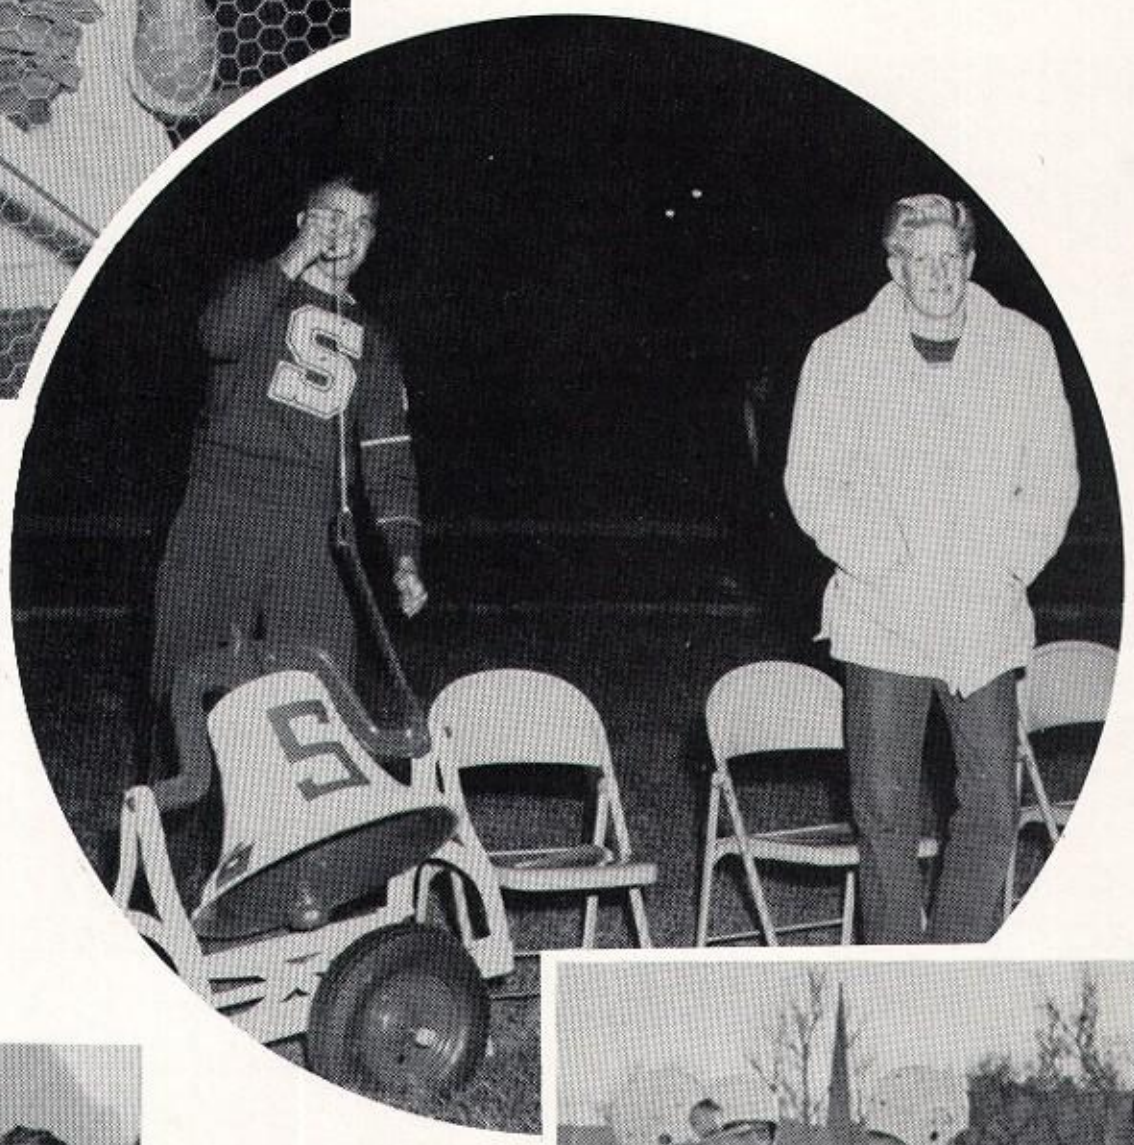
Vacation ends, school begins . . . Everyone gets into the swing of things . . . First floor, new lockers, new ceiling, new teachers? . . . Third floor, old lockers, old ceiling, old teachers? . . . No term papers, just book reports and projects . . . Football for the Senior High, picnics and many new classes for the Junior High . . . We meet new friends and renew old acquaintances . . . New teachers, old study halls. We suffer through both . . . The Bluff gets underway . . . Here we go again.

Everywhere you go the Bluff staff follows you!
Laurie Johnson

Teachers are trying to stop necking in the halls. The next thing you know they'll be trying to stop the students.
Miss Rystrom, Mr. Stahl

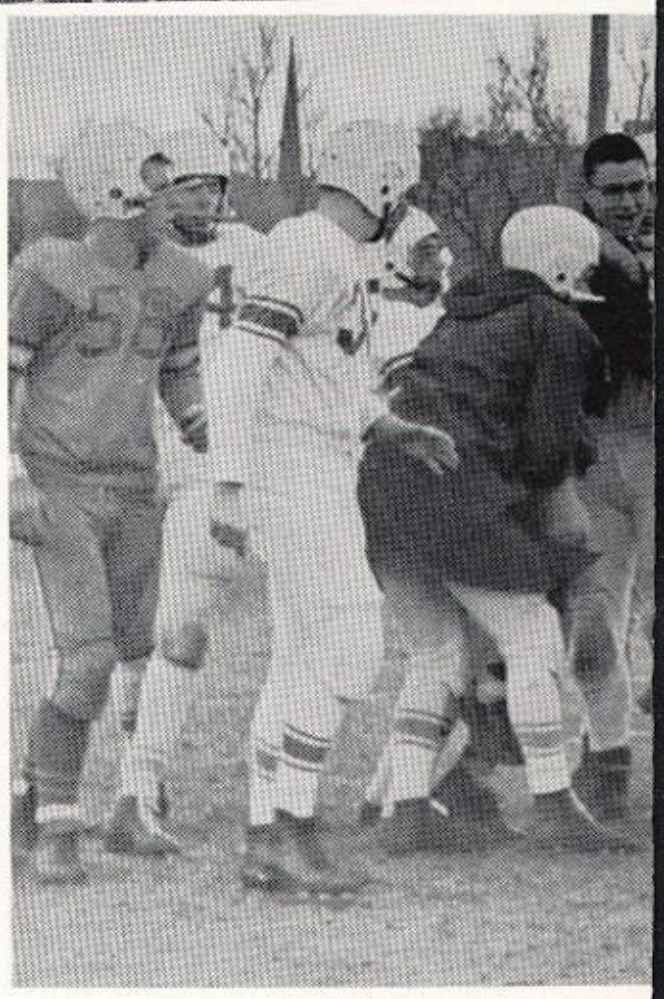
The Victory Bell Rings Loud

Decorating your cage, kiddies?
Karol Griffith, Ned Einfalt



The Victory Bell rings once again for the Bearcats.
Bill Reichenberg, Joe Murray

Juniors anxiously await the new class rings.



The Bearcats Keep Rolling

Come on, Bobette, it takes two to tango!
Katharine McMillan, Bobette Reading

The new Victory Bell rings loud for the winning Bearcat team . . . Again the Scottsbluff High School band takes shape and entertains the football fans in the cool autumn air . . . Teachers' Convention, students' vacation . . . New teachers learn quickly . . . Student Council gets on schedule . . . The Juniors anxiously await the latest style of class rings . . . The Bearcats keep rolling on the gridiron and the Victory Bell rings, rings, and rings.

Aw, please, Mr. Lemons, put me down. You're making a scene.
Mr. Tow, Mr. Lemons

Some people just can't wait for the after-game dance.

All the time we thought it was the cafeteria, and it was really Gary Knaub's feet.

Bearcat Banner Day

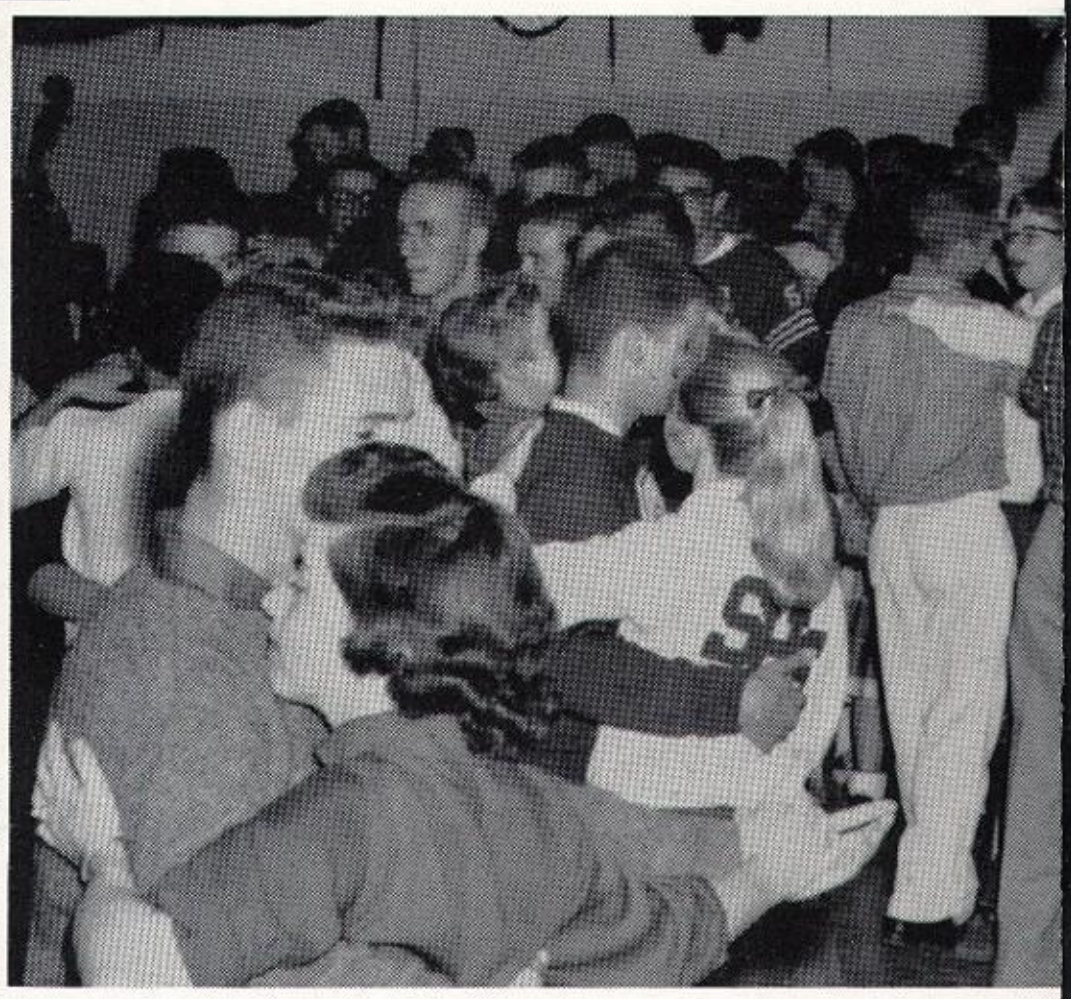
Skittens decorated their float for the very successful Bearcat Banner Day Parade.

Banner Day Queen Charli Huston waves to her cheering fans.

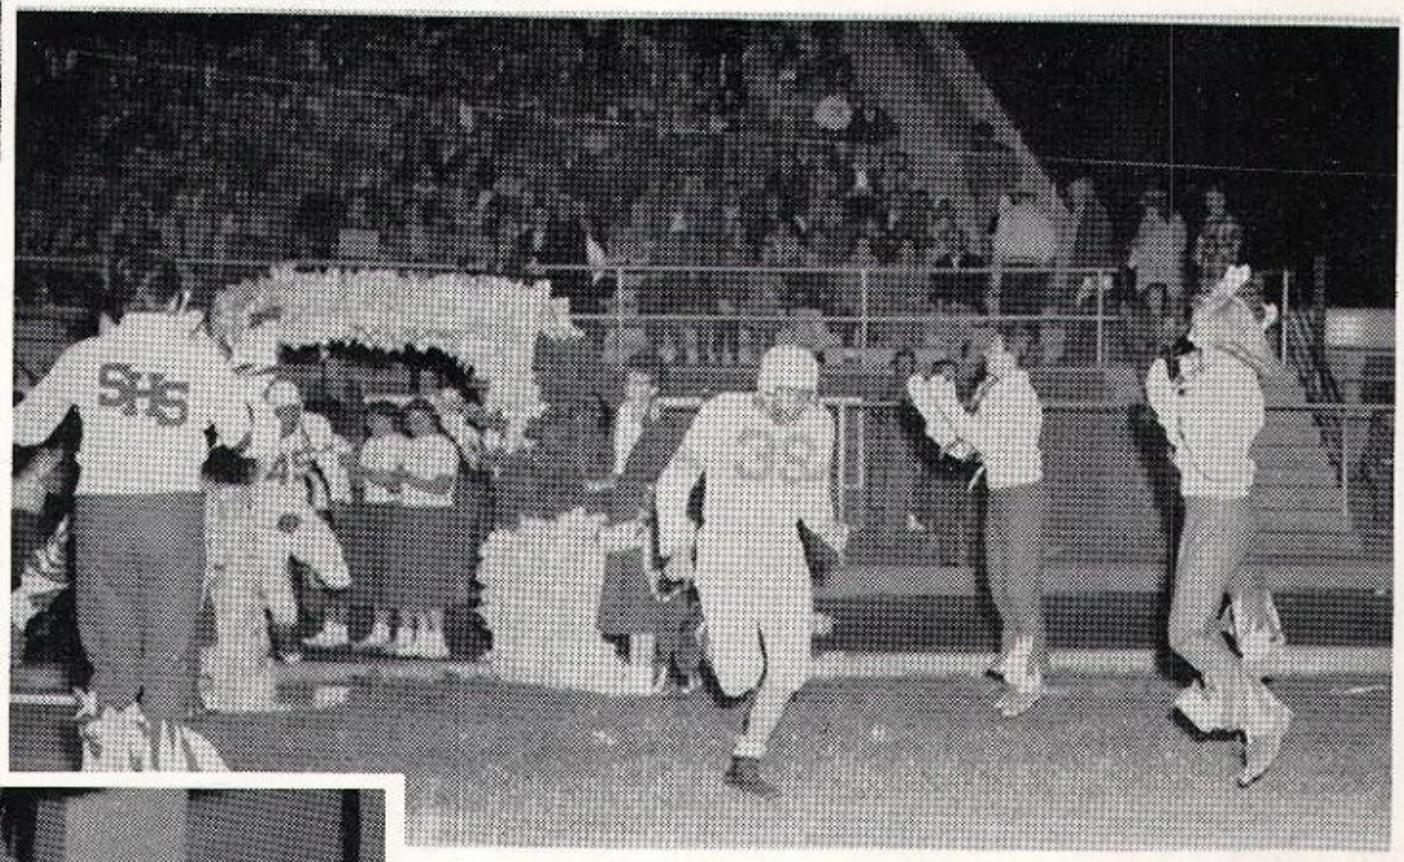


The finale of Bearcat Banner Day brings many S.H.S. students to t dance floor.

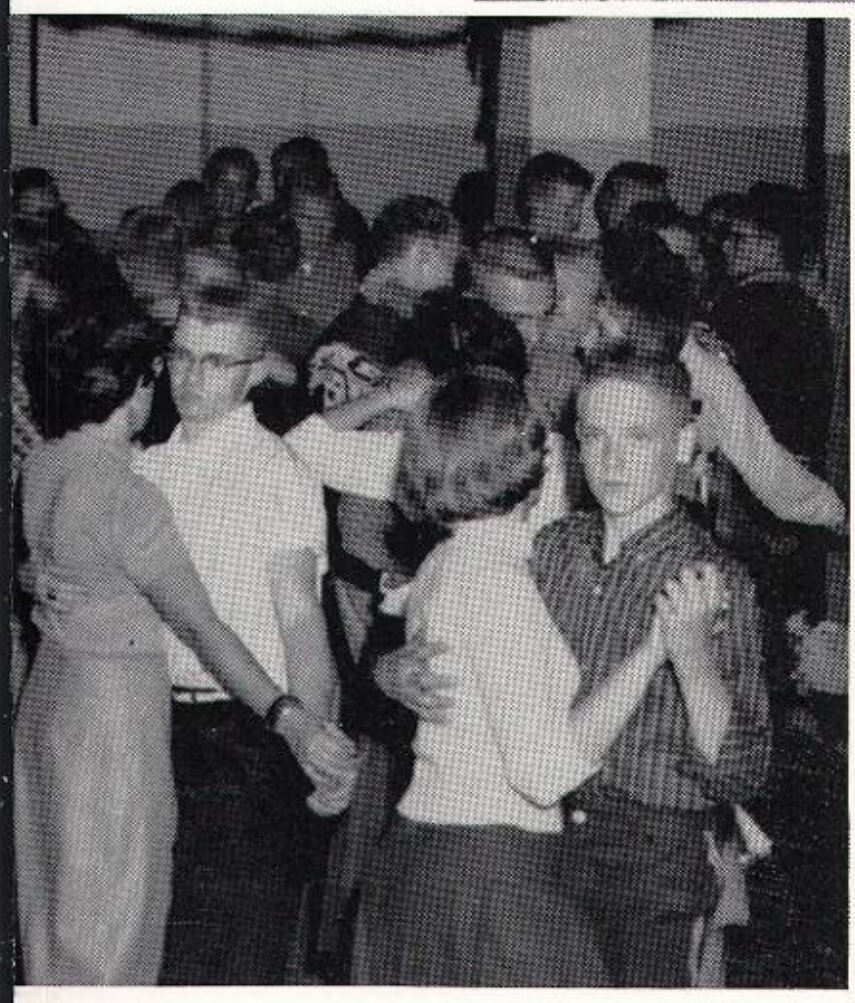
and Everyone Celebrates

The royalty is crowned.

Bearcat Banner Day! . . . The many hours of planning prove successful . . . Organizations select candidates for Banner Day Royalty . . . Decoration on the many floats was in keeping with the beauty of the day . . . McCook was burned twice . . . in the bonfire and on the football field . . . She is the Sweetheart of Scottsbluff High . . . Queen Charli Huston, King Kent Green, and their attendants, Donna Hofreiter, Bill Moore, Kay Peshek, and Bob Carleton, were presented at a very impressive ceremony . . . Bearcats march to Victory! And everyone celebrates at the after-game dance.



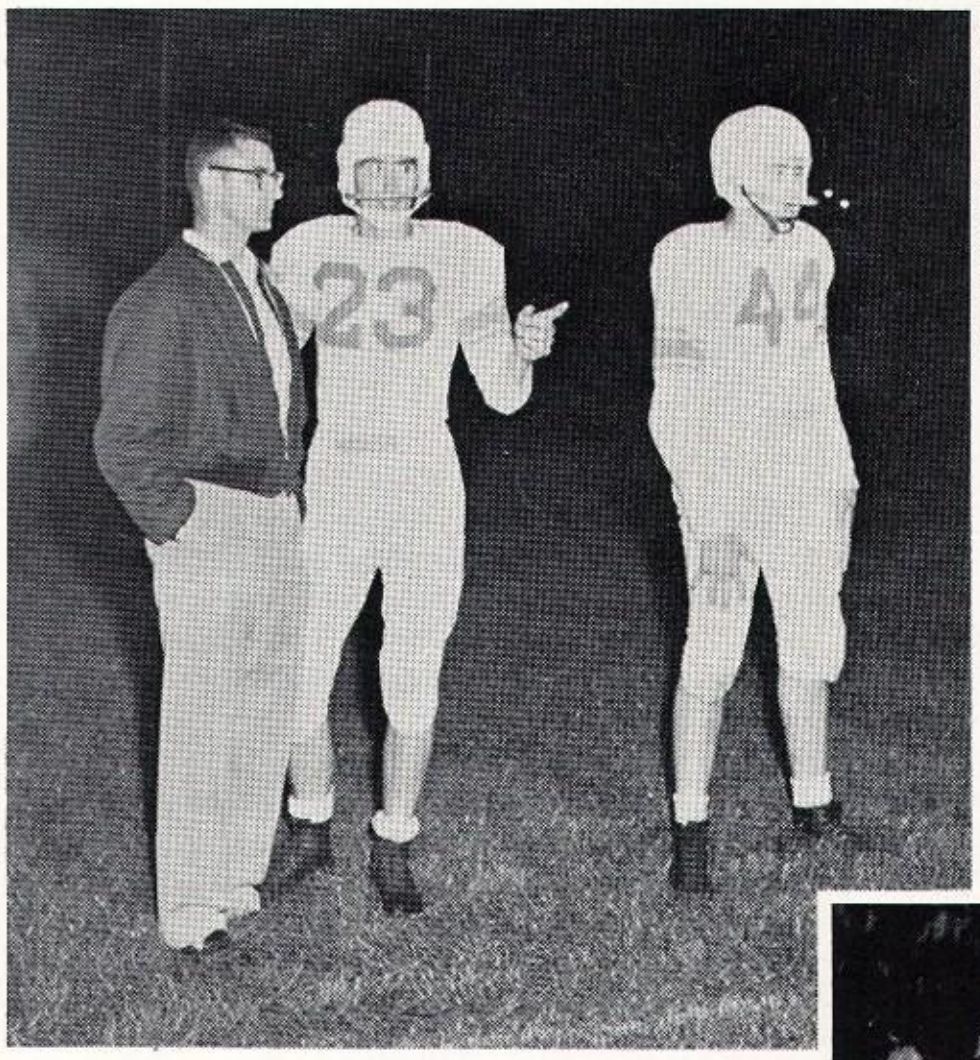
Gary Margheim charges onto the gridiron as the highlight of Bearcat Banner Day is reached.



The student body looks on as the McCook Bison burn in effigy at the Bearcat Banner Day bonfire.

Student Body Exhibits Spirit

The Spirit of the Bearcats is ever before the student body.



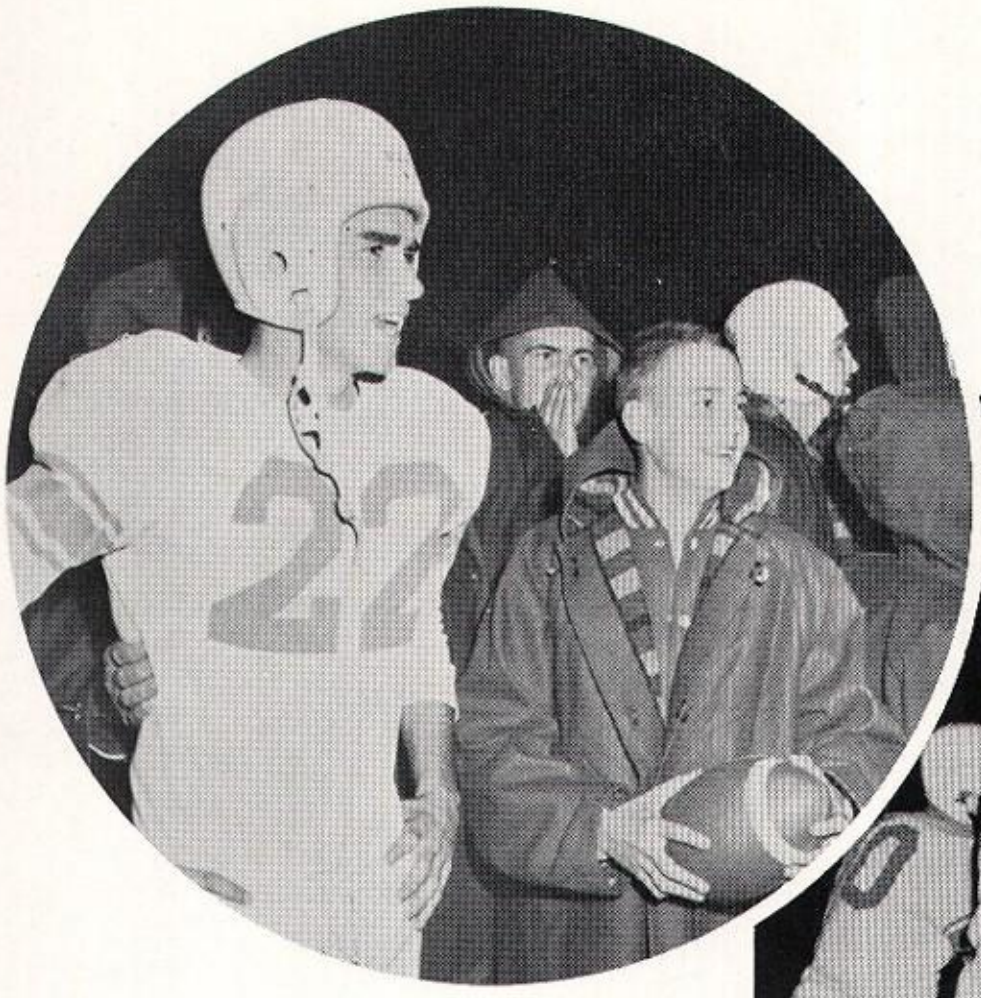
I hate to be a tattle-tale, Mr. Conner, but he hit me.
Mr. Conner, Bill Comstock, Jim Pointer

We're Cherry and White, S.H.S.
We'll back you tonight, S.H.S.

Quick, send the squad car! They're rioting in the halls!

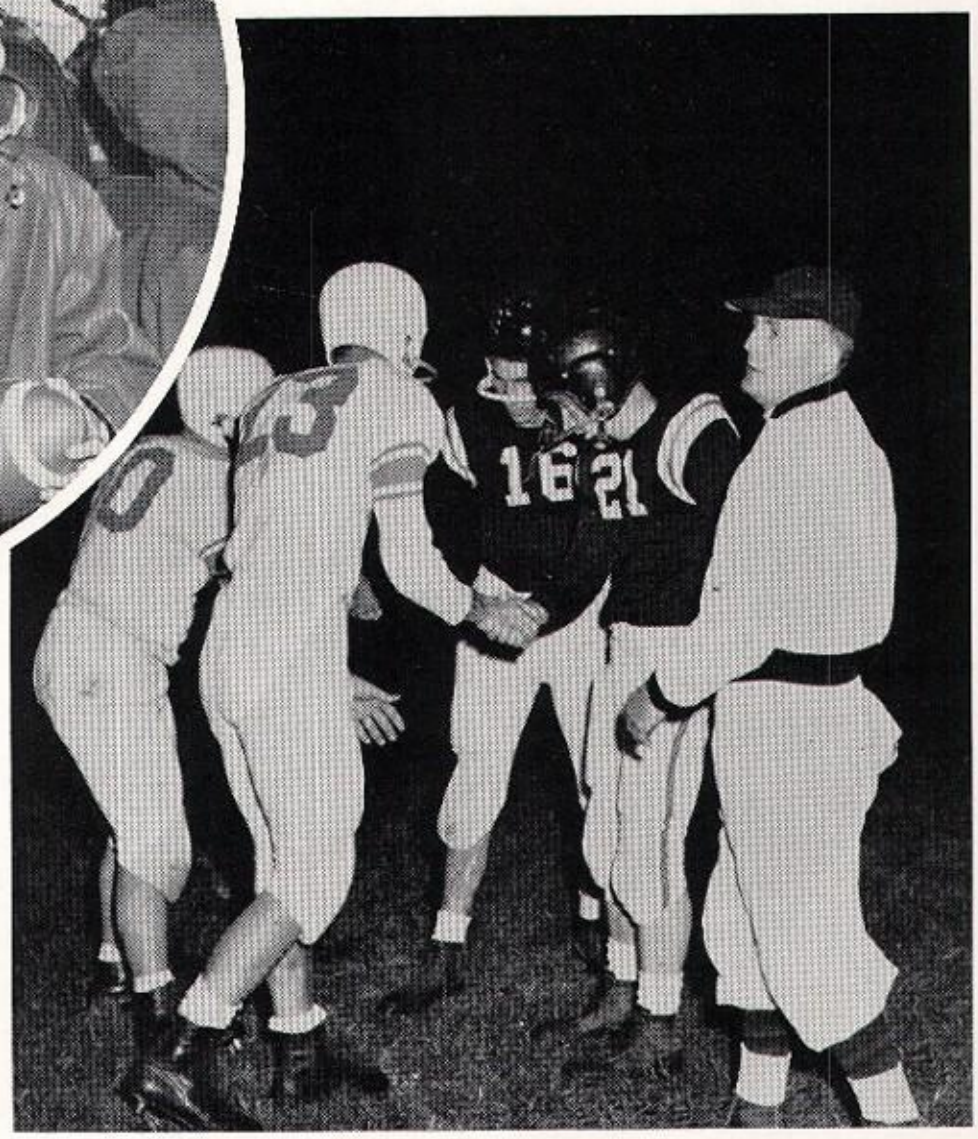
Mr. Lemons

Everyone Participates in Some Way



Hey, ref! Here's the ball!
Jerry Wilks, Gary Graham

Big Ten Honors captured by Bearcats . . . Backed by the student body all the way . . . 1957-58 cheerleaders represent the Spirit of S.H.S. . . . Student Council begins to plan for all-school talent show . . . Echoes staff works hard to report the news in its bi-weekly editions . . . Bluff staff meets first deadline . . . sigh of relief blows three staff members out third floor window . . . School continues at a steady pace.

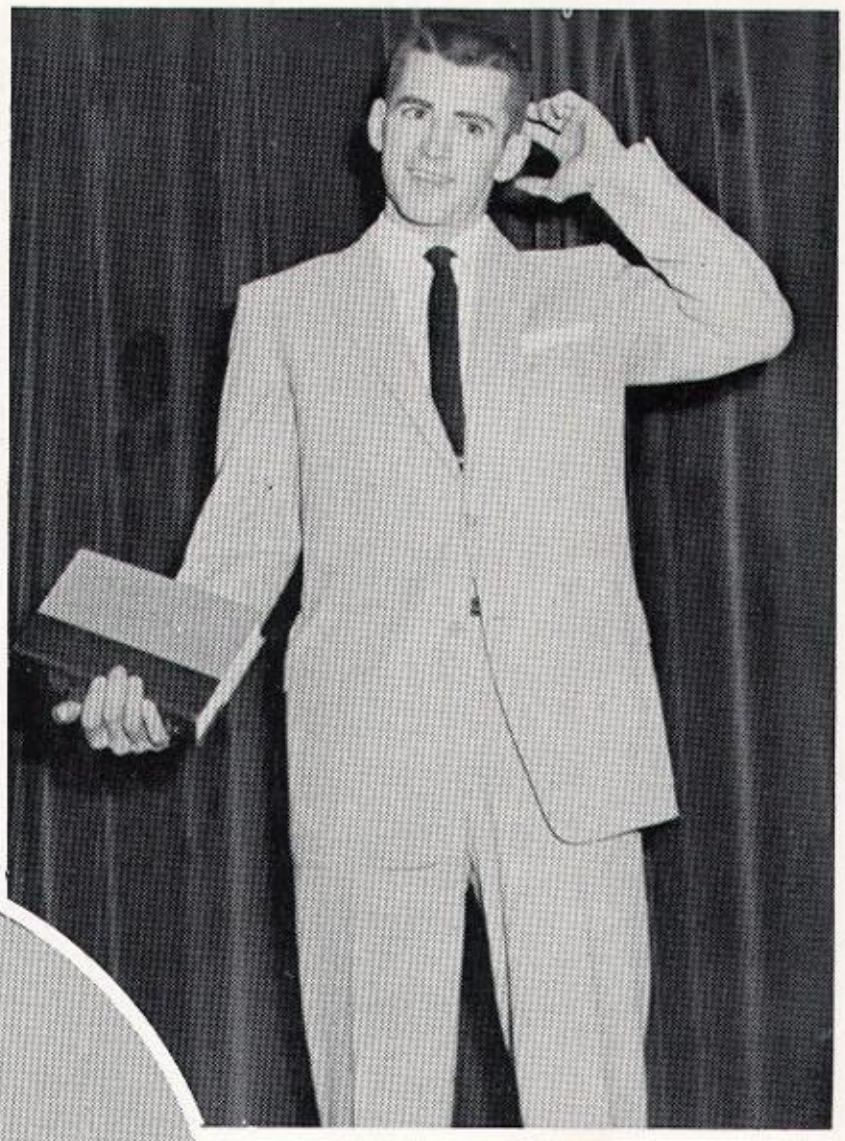


Darn! Where did I put that quarter?

Juniors are selling. More juniors were sold this year than ever before.

School Grows Bigger –

I'd like to help you out; which way did you come in?
Kay Peshek



And then there's the joke about the traveling salesman!
Gary McClanahan

Meg Miller supports the school bond issue by holding up the walls.

Put your pants on, boys. There is one thing this school doesn't allow and that is burlesque!
Ricky Frank. Jerry Hood

The wide, wide world holds special interest for Harley Shaver, Joan Brodhead, Doug Webb, Rick Frank, Ann Williams, and Steve Berggren.

World Grows Smaller

School bond issue defeated despite enthusiasm on part of students, faculty, and administration . . . School population grows . . . N.H.S.P.A. holds convention in Lincoln for leading high school journalists . . . "Boast of the Bearcats," all-school talent show, raises money for foreign exchange program; S.H.S. talent shines . . . Football equipment checked in, basketball togs checked out . . . Thespians stumble over "Great Big Doorstep" . . . The world grows smaller for six students involved in foreign student plans . . . Homework, homework never lets up.

The weaker sex is the stronger sex because of the weakness of the stronger sex for the weaker sex!
Kent Green, Lynn Irish, Anne Campbell, Delores Miller

Superintendent Otto Ruff spent many hours preparing information and explanations to support the defeated 2½ million dollar bond issue.

Harley, Doug, and Steve spent the last part of the school year studying in New Zealand. Joan, Rick, and Ann were the finalists in the S.H.S. Foreign Exchange Program.

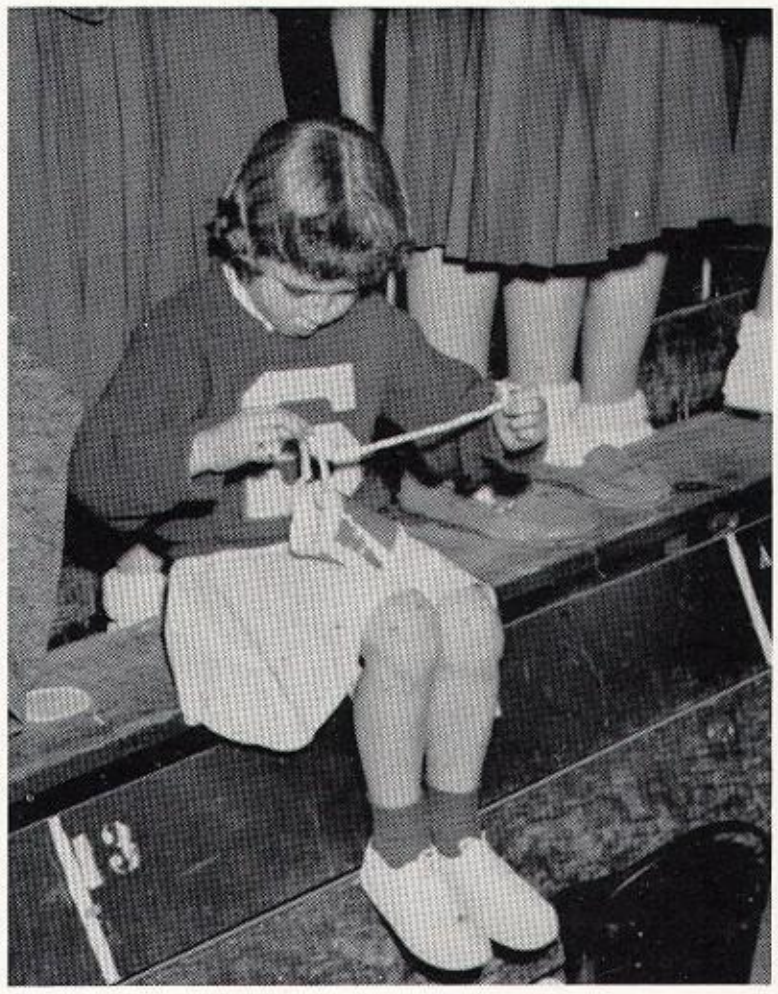
Staff photographer Marian Fuller captures the attention of Mr. Tow, Judy Kraft, Kay Peshek, Meg Miller, Carol Irish, Susie Lovett, at the high school press convention in Lincoln.

The Wintry Season, a Royal Season–

Skittens officers Gloria Welsch, Judy Van, Charli Huston crown the 1958 Skittens Royalty . . . attendant Steve Van Noy, King Dean Knaub, and attendant Dave Anstine.

This is the Royalty, they couldn't be sillier.
Jan Plummer, Queen Nancy Rhoades, Dee Dishman

Some of the jokes I tell are pretty old . . . but after all, I'm not a kid anymore.
Mr. Brown



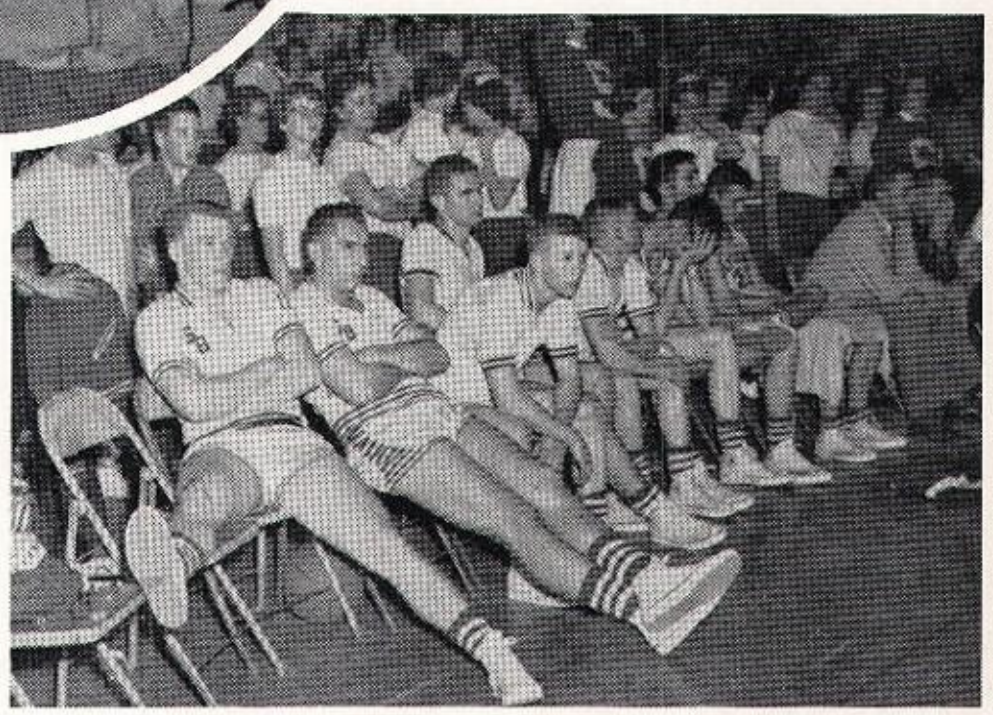
Knit one, purl two; you wouldn't know there was a game going on!
Debbie Kramer

the Days Fly by, to Graduation

The Season of Royalty . . . "S" Club Queen Nancy Rhoades, Skittens King Dean Knaub, and their attendants wear the royal crowns . . . Basketball season features winning efforts . . . 'Cats gain tie for West Big Ten championship . . . Cold weather drives students inside; drives teachers crazy . . . Wrestling . . . boys only . . . introduced in S.H.S. Other types well established previously . . . Christmas vacation removes furrows from worried brows; return to school replaces them . . . And the days fly by . . . To Spring . . . To May . . . To Graduation.

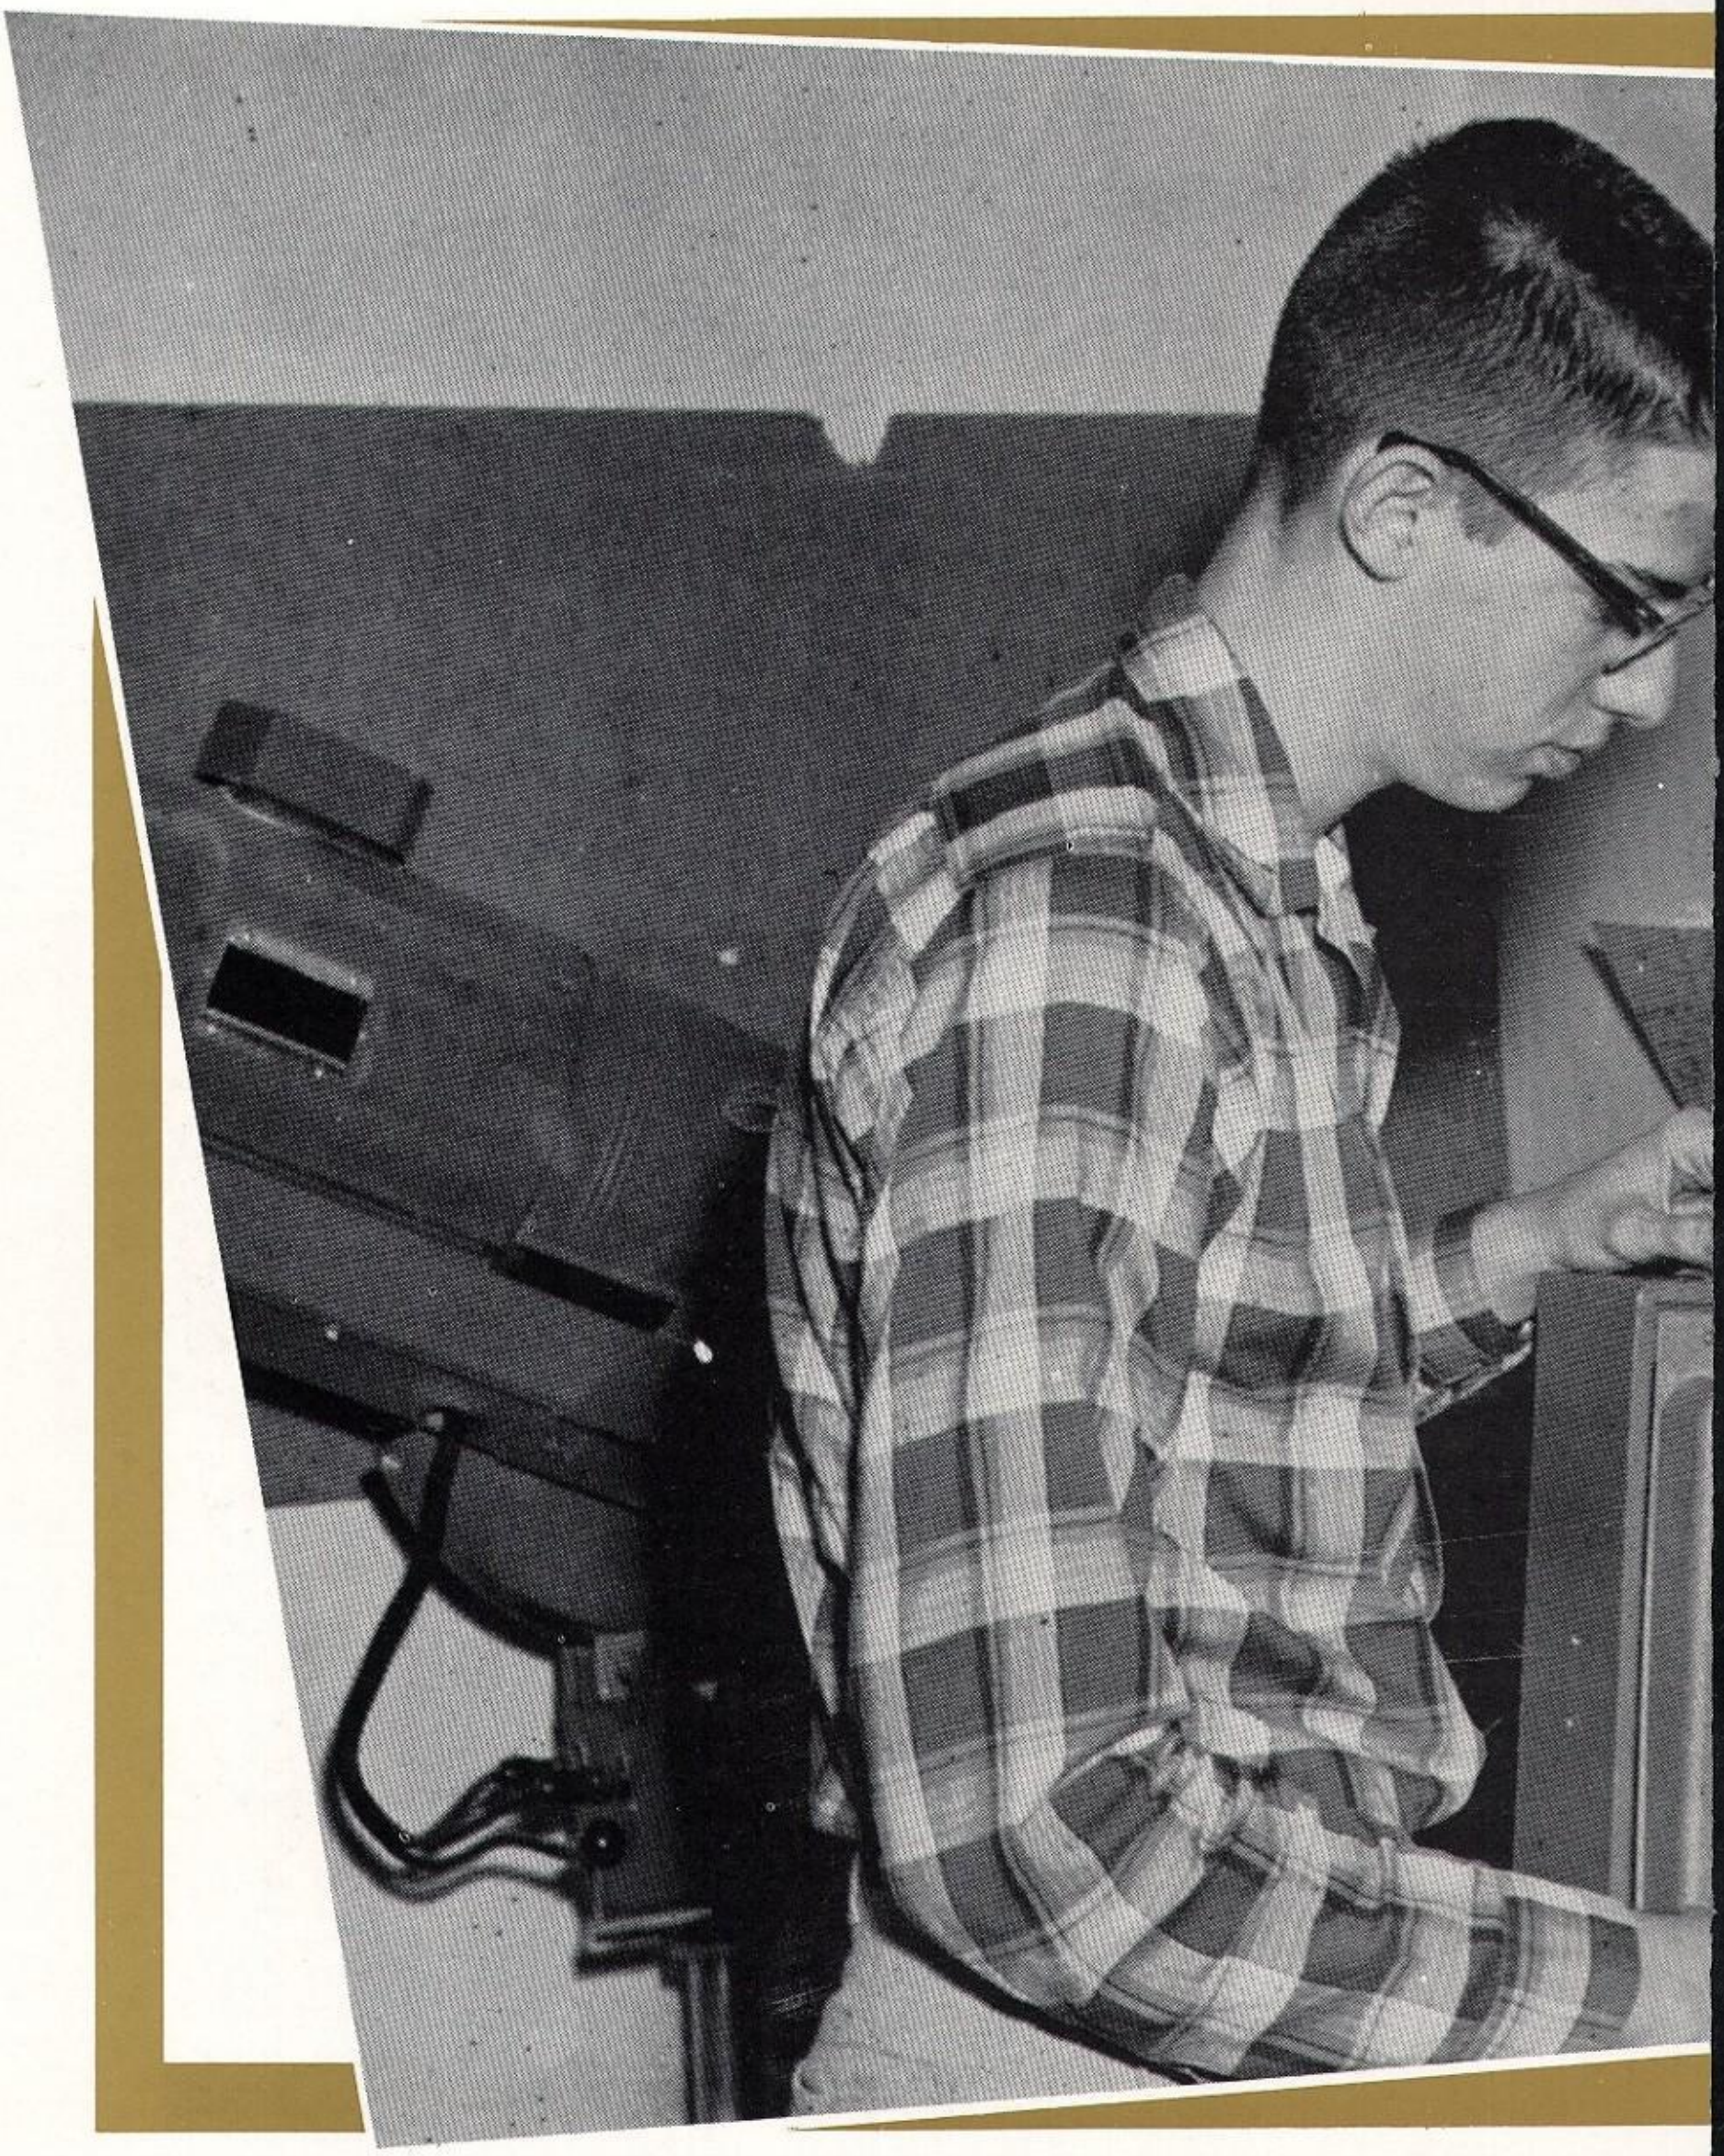
My mother does this to me every time I bite someone.
Deanna Bleyle, Joan Fry

Whew! This cheerleading really gets a person down.
Cheri Buehler

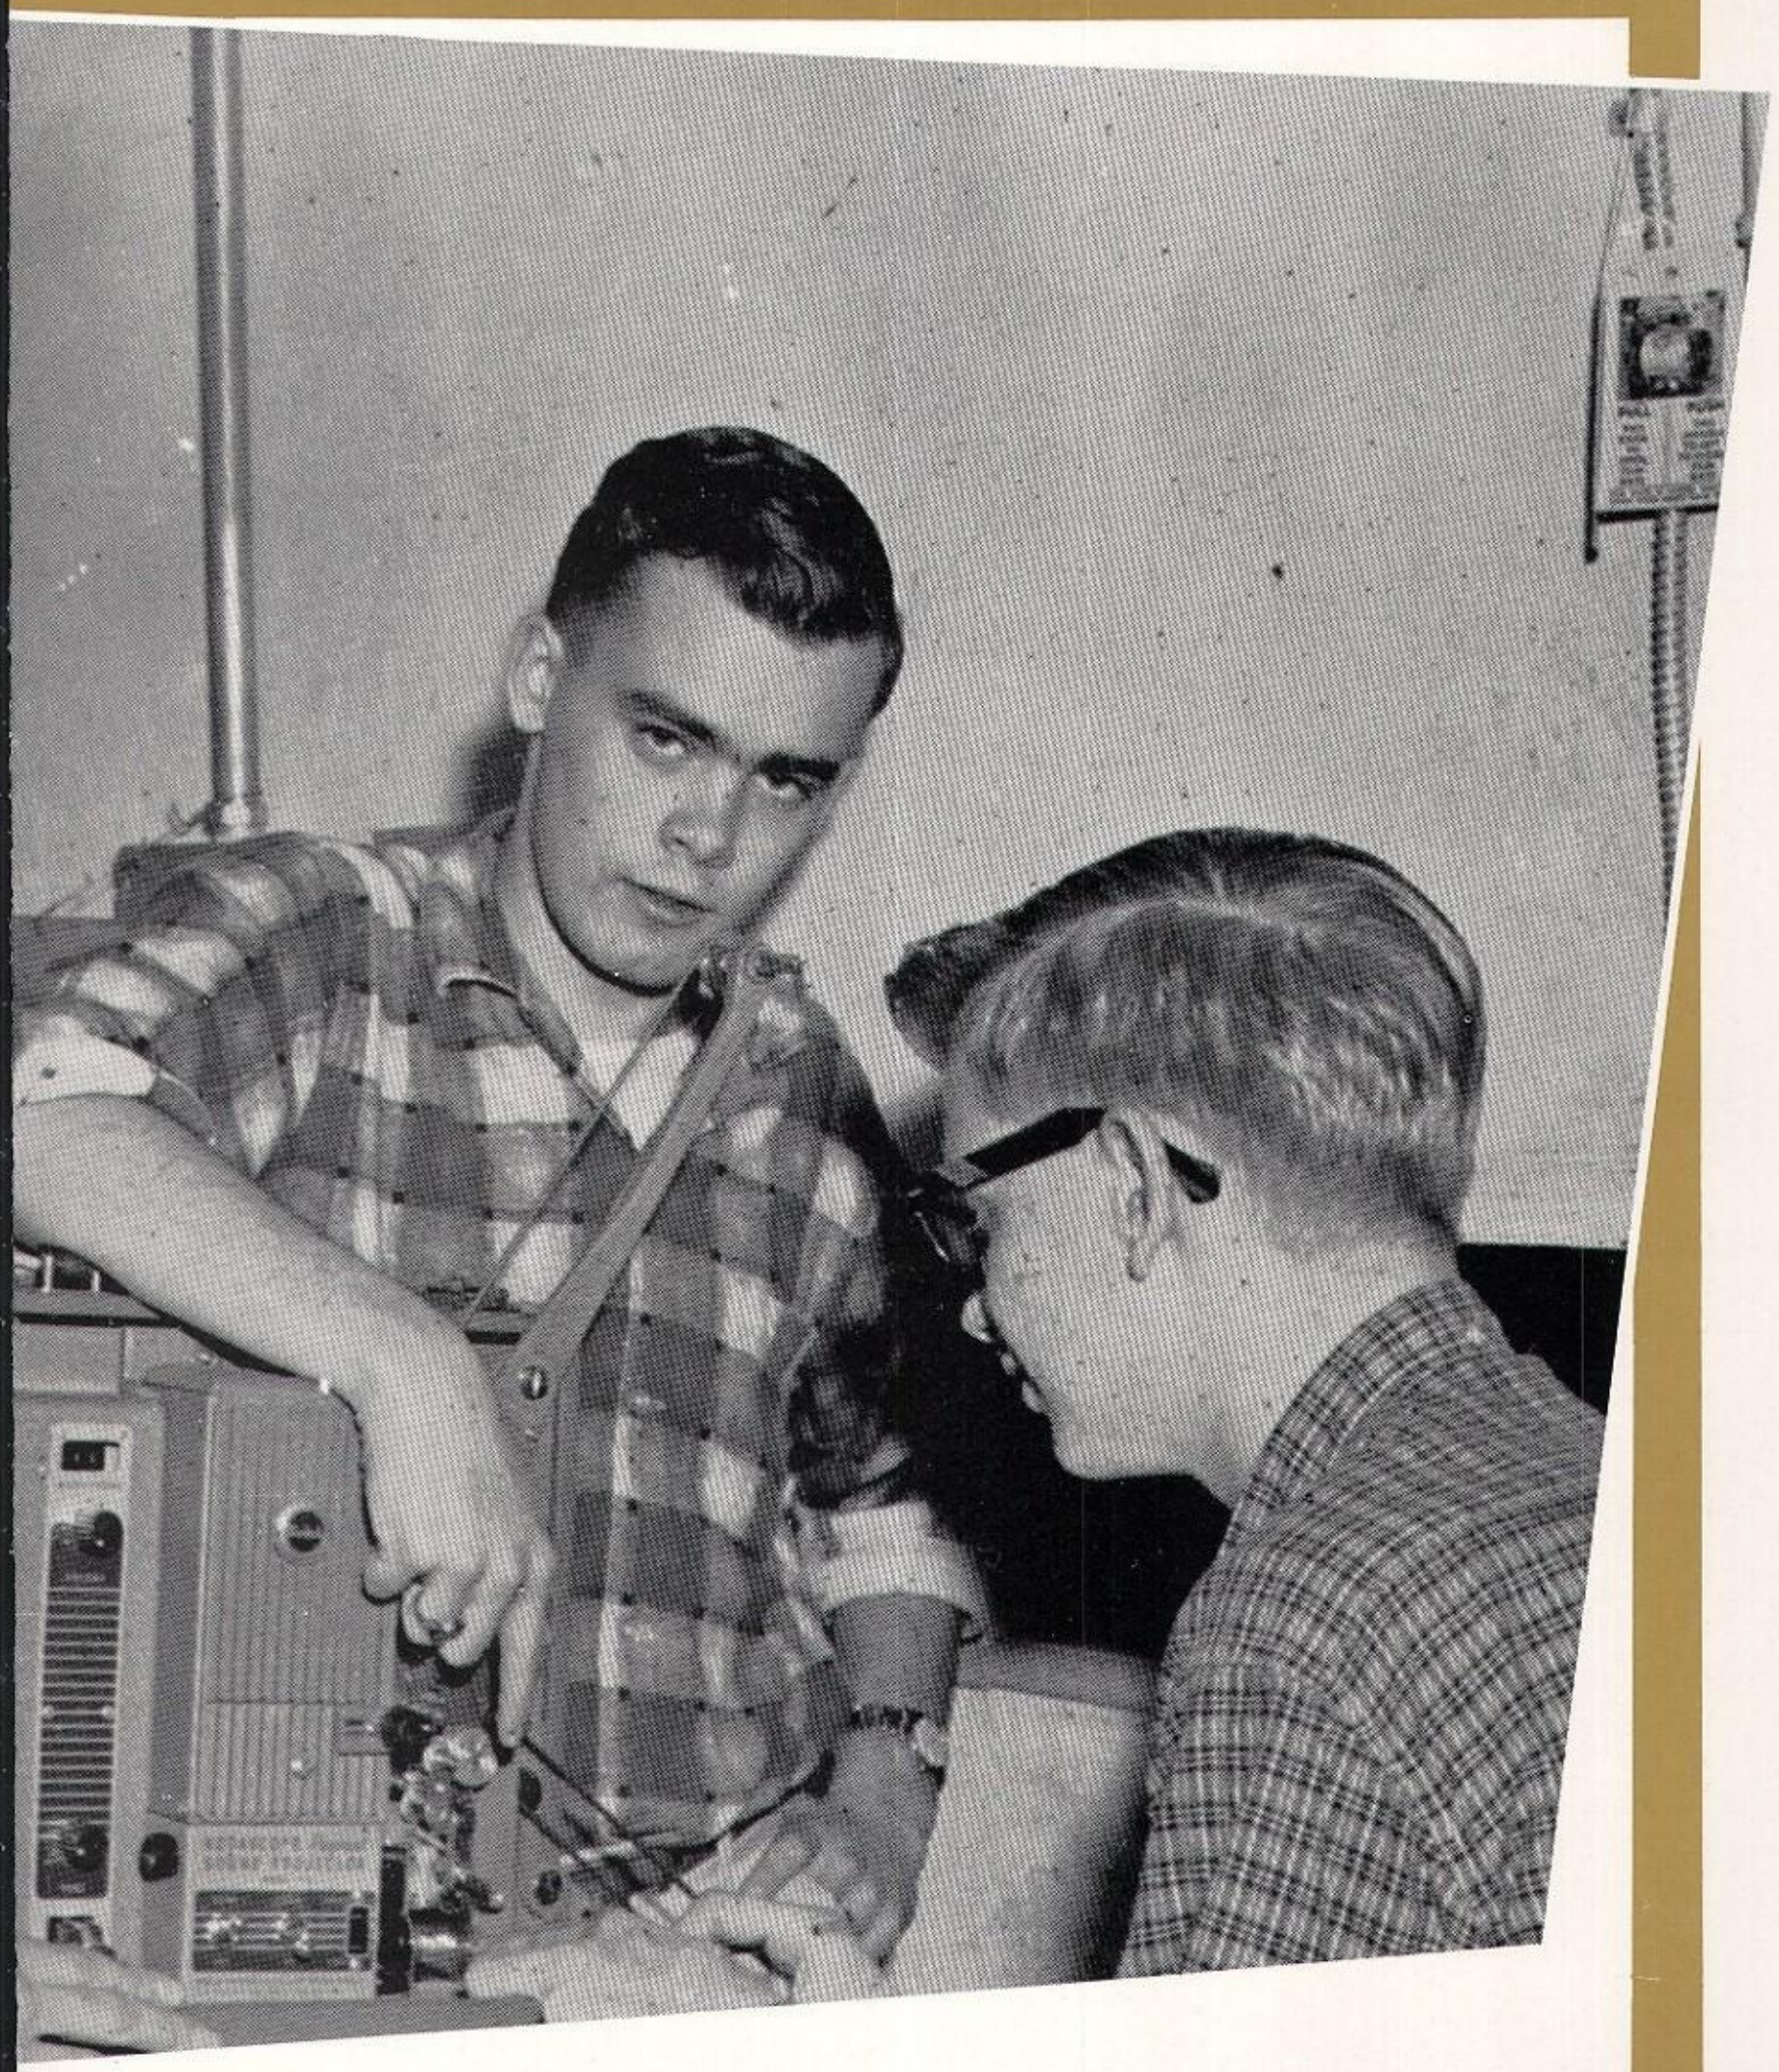


The score was tied, 50-50, in an overtime, but there are those who-just-don't-care.

This is the "S" Club?



Activities



"The Spirit of Service"

The Bluff Staf

Donna Hofreiter, Senior Class editor, and Jan Plummer and Marilynn Dill underclass co-editors, work on last minute deadlines.

Judy Kraft, co-editor of the Bluff, writes headlines.

Mr. Tow, advisor of the Bluff Staff, helps on the division pages.

Meg Miller and Kay Buehler, organizations co-editors, discuss what kind of copy to write under the picture.

Brenda Cook and Harla Williams, activities co-editors, sort pictures for the Bluff.

A trip to Lincoln for the Nebraska High School Press Convention was one of the highlights of the year for co-editors, Susie Lovett and Judy Kraft. They accepted the Award of Excellence trophy for the 1957 yearbook. Marian Fuller, photographer, received third place in photography.

Provides Lasting Memories

Susie Lovett, co-editor of the Bluff, checks copy.

Judy Antrim and Lyllus Hammer, faculty co-editors, talk to Mr. Downey, professional photographer for the Bluff.

Shannon Murphy, music editor, and Dianne Wallace, business manager, crop pictures.

Frank Davey and Marian Fuller, photographers for the Bluff, try to repair a broken camera.

Between making layouts, meeting the three deadlines, figuring headlines and trying to decide on the cover and the division pages, the Bluff Staff had quite a time, but as a result of the efforts you have this . . . the 1958 Golden Bluff.

Sports co-editors Laurie Johnson and Von Emma Richard type their triplicates.

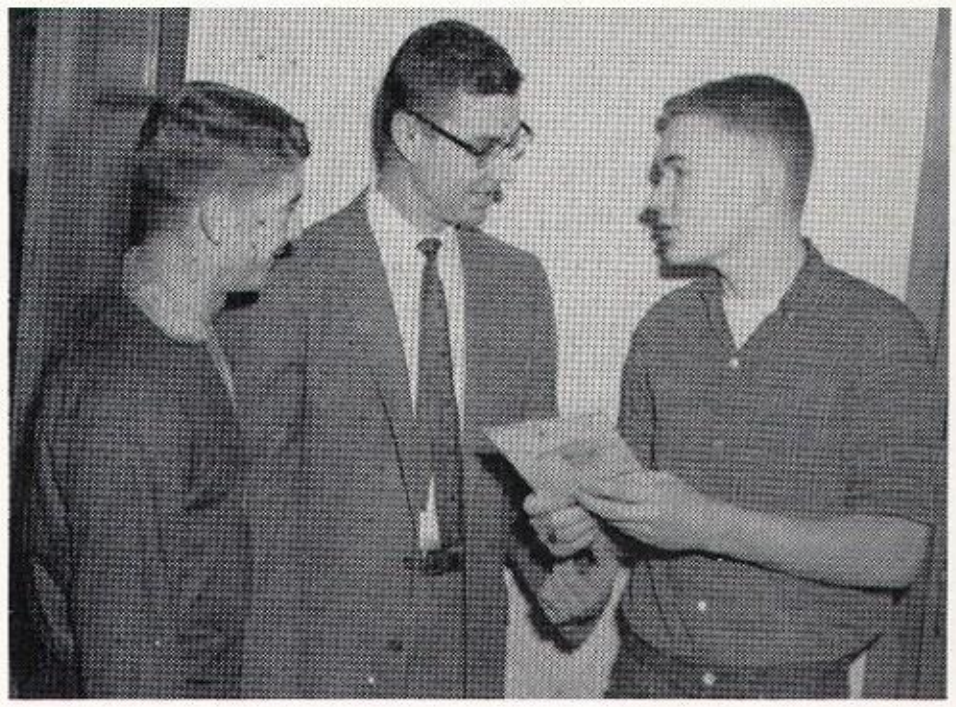
Echoes Staff Offer

Judy Van Wyngarden and Harriet Lang, page three co-editors, glance through exchange papers for filler material.

Kay Peshek, co-editor of the Echoes, writes assignments on the board.

Patience and time are what it takes to produce each issue of the Echoes. Writing editorials and beats, covering school news, selling ads, making layouts, figuring headlines, copyreading and proofreading are all part of the staff's job.

The Echoes came out every other Friday as a result of the staff's efforts and the supervision of Mr. Ted Tow.



Dean Knaub and Dave Anstine, sports co-editors, discuss with Coach Conner a write-up for a football game.

Clark Hartshorn and Harla Williams, advertising managers, prepare the Echoes for circulation.

Mr. Tow, advisor of the Echoes Staff, glances up from his work.

News and Views

Carol Irish, co-editor of the Echoes, assigns beats to the staff.

Sharon Bartlett, page one editor, and Dick Vanderberg, reporter, check out through the office to sell ads.

Co-editors Carol Irish and Kay Peshek, proofread the Echoes at the Star-Herald.

Co-editors Kay Peshek and Carol Irish made a trip to Lincoln for the Nebraska High School Press Convention. Kay tied for first place in the Class "B" newswriting contest and Carol won first place in the Class "B" editorial contest.

Cynthia Nuzzi and Tim Rutz, reporters, type up stories for page one.

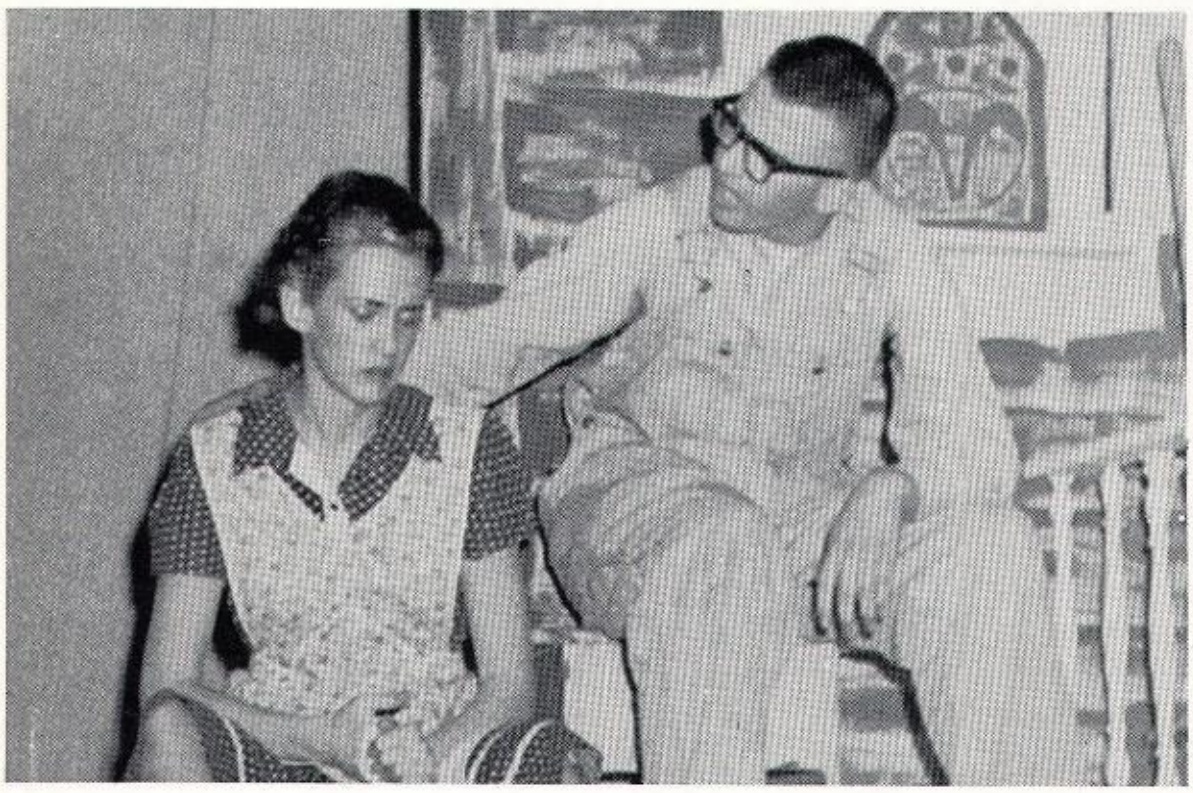
"The Great Big Doorstep"

A big doorstep floating down the Mississippi River was found by Arthur Crochet. It was the beginning of quite an adventure for the Crochet family who lived in an old dilapidated shack in Grass Margin, Louisiana. Mrs. Crochet had quite a time trying to get a big house for the beautiful doorstep to keep her family together. In the end, however, the family stayed together and The Great Big Doorstep had a big white house to go with it.

"Help me with this stuff and I'll give you both a real hug," offers Bill Rajewich to Bonnie Benda and Julee Wallace.



"Now, now. Take a blow, Duck." Bob Nazarenus (Commodore) counsels Kris Gordon (Mrs. Crochet).

The cast includes Julee Wallace as Evvie Crochet, Bonnie Benda as Topal Crochet, Kris Gordon as Mrs. Crochet, Sharon Cummings as Elna Crochet, Jim Zier as Fleece Crochet, Larry Nelson as Arthur Crochet, Frank Davey as Mr. Tobin, Bob Nazarenus as Commodore, Ruthanne Haslet as Mrs. Dupré, George Porter as Tayo Delacroix, Bill Rajewich as Dewey Crochet, and Lynna Travelute as Mrs. Beaumont Crochet.

A successful play.

A Three Act Comedy

Holdin' their breath while Bill Rajewich (Dewey) rewrites the check for the new house are Bob Nazarenus, Kris Gordon, Bonnie Benda and Julee Wallace.

"Well done," says beaming Miss Rystrom to Sherri Cummings and Jim Zier.

Miss Barbara Rystrom, dramatics and speech teacher, was the director of the first play of the year, "The Great Big Doorstep."

"Thank You for answerin' the prayers that went up to You," pray Jim Zier and Sherri Cummings.

The Student Council Represents

Officers of Student Council are Sharon Bartlett, president; Kay Peshek, vice president; Joan Brodhead, secretary; Kent Green, treasurer.

Student Council has been busy this year serving the school. Members began work this summer preparing the Student Directory for publication.

Other duties of the council were planning Bearcat Banner Day, Share-The-Fare, Exchange Student projects, providing a talent show, keeping the school neat and clean, Twirp Season, and taking part in the Savings Stamp program.

One of the biggest projects in which the Student Council took part this year was the Bond Issue. They provided transportation for the voters. Student Council also planned and organized assemblies that the students would find both educational and entertaining.

the Entire Student Body

The Student Council screening board auditions prospective acts for the all-school talent show, "The Boast of the Bearcats."

Two carloads of Student Council members making a trip to McCook to the Nebraska Association of Student Councils Convention was one of the outstanding activities of the year.

At the convention they elected new officers from members all over the state. Kendall Early was one of the five nominees for president and was also a discussion leader. Sharon Bartlett ended her year as treasurer.

Queen Charli Huston, King Kent Green and their attendants ride on the Student Council Royalty float in the Bearcat Banner Day Parade.

Radio Production is our voice of S.H.S. Its members receive training and experience in all phases of radio work. This work consists of getting news, technical work, announcing, and the broadcasting of the programs.

Dee Dishman, Karol Griffith and Carol Irish pick out records for a request program.

on the Air

Susan Weaver, Patty Rose, Eileen Kramer, and Toni Beatty present a skit on a live program from SBC.

Live programs are tape recorded and broadcasted from the Radio Production's own radio room, station SBC.

Carol Huber, Julie Walter and Laurie Johnson read their script for the SBC radio program.

CHAIRMEN—FIRST ROW: Barbara Hall, music; Dee Dishman, typing; Karol Griffith, publicity. SECOND ROW: Bonnie Benda, dramatics; Carol Huber, continuity; Laurie Johnson, sports; Carol Irish, news.

The General Director presides over all Radio Production action and the Program Director selects all ideas and arranges the programs. There is one program every other week which is thirty minutes long, heard over KNEB and KOLT.

Both KOLT and KNEB have aided Radio Production by giving their time, facilities, and guidance in all radio work.

Constantly Working . .

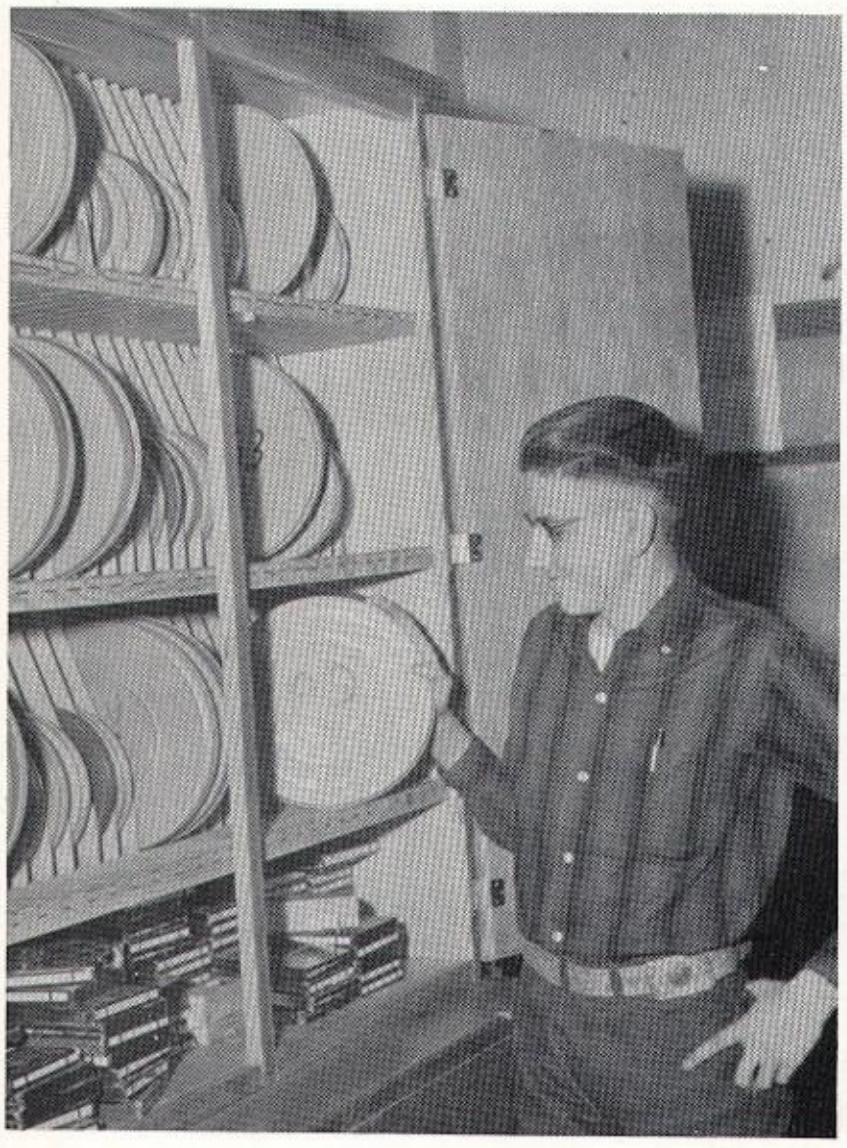
The projectionists were kept quite busy this year aiding the school whenever possible by running films, spotlights, record players, stagelights, and the P.A. system at after-game dances.

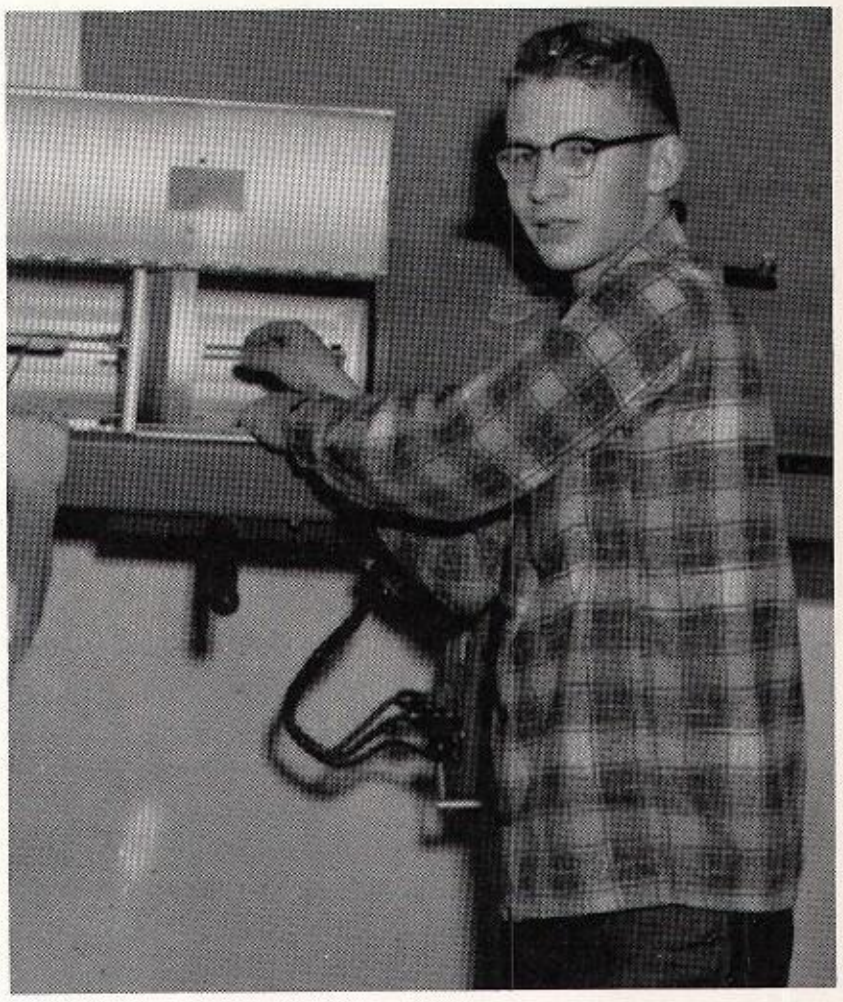


"Now, which one should I choose?" ponders Keith Slaymaker.

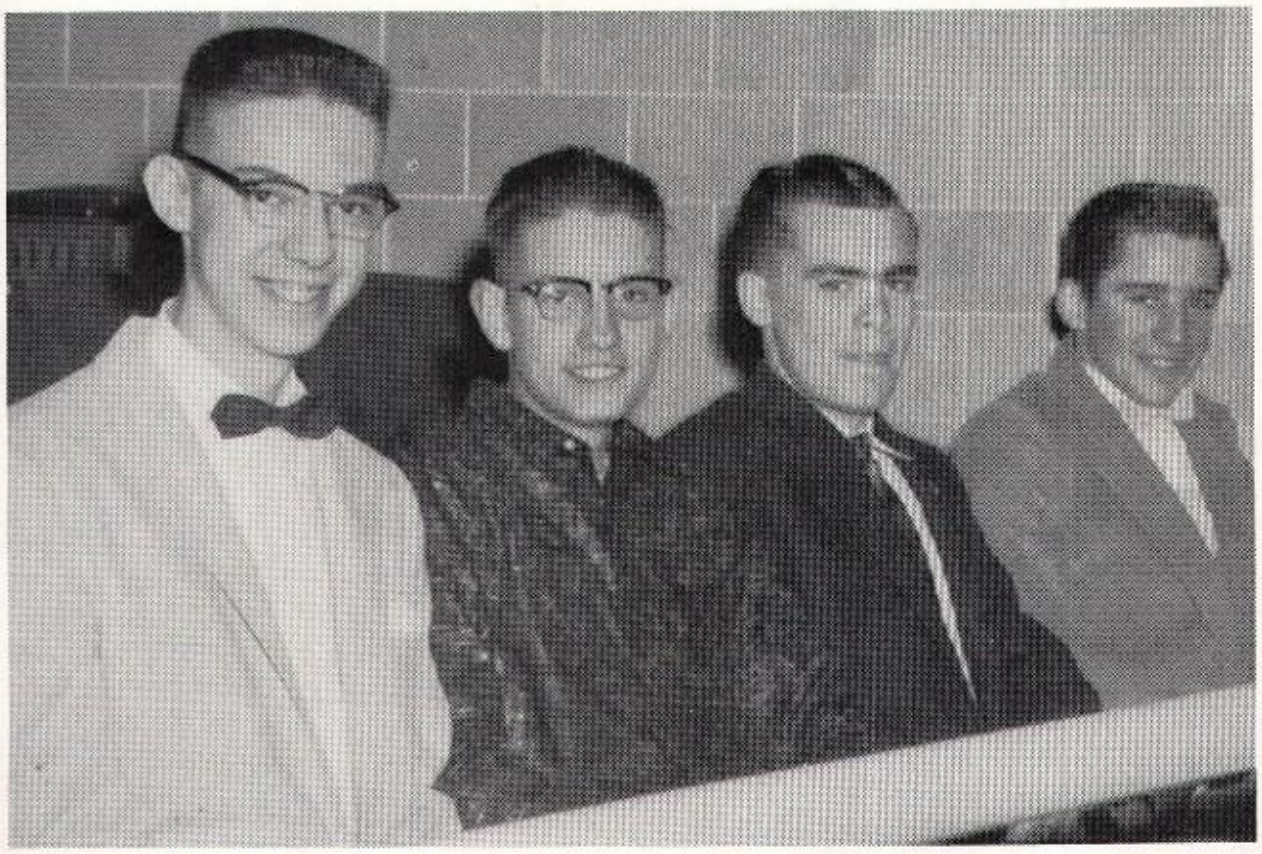
"Roll the film, start the camera," says Art Junge, and the show goes on.

Their Aims Are High

Sponsors of Projectionists are Mr. Pleis and Dr. Schwisow.



Al Banghart takes time out for a picture in the midst of changing carbons.



Officers are Frank Davey, president; Keith Slaymaker, vice president; George Porter, secretary-treasurer; Darrell Bently, Student Council representative.

Some of the special occasions which the projectionists served this year were church functions, meetings, community concerts, talent shows, and plays.

New this year is a constitution written by the sponsors, officers, and a small committee. It states specifically all rules and regulations. The main purpose is to keep the group organized.

Ushers Offer Service to the School

The usher crew consists of six boys who have volunteered their time and service to the school.

Credit is given for this service besides the personal satisfaction the boys receive.

Bill Rajewich is the head usher this year.

Miss Carter and Miss Moor, two of the sponsors of Ushers, take time for a picture.

This year they have ushered for different school performances and community concerts. The ushers will also give their service to class day, Vespers and Commencement.

Mrs. Ethel Pflug is the head sponsor.

Artists of the Future

Mrs. Muehlberger tells Janice Davis and Brenda Cook to "get busy" and clean the silk screen.

Money is the theme for Gaylord Alexander and Galen Wilson's posters.

Gold Key winners and advisors: George Fuller, seventh grade; Mr. Inaba; Unavesta Schmunk, sophomore; Brenda Cook, senior; Mrs. Muehlberger.

NIKE

Service and scholarship is the motto of Nike. As a service organization the Nike girls render valuable aid to both the school and community.

Almost any time of day, a smiling Nike girl can be seen sitting at the information desk in the front hall. The girls also take care of the bulletin boards in the lower hall. The crowning of the Nike Knight and Key Club Sweetheart at the Nike Key Club formal was one of the biggest events of the year. Two projects that concluded the year were the Valentine party for the children at the Torrington orphanage, and a Parent-Daughter Banquet.

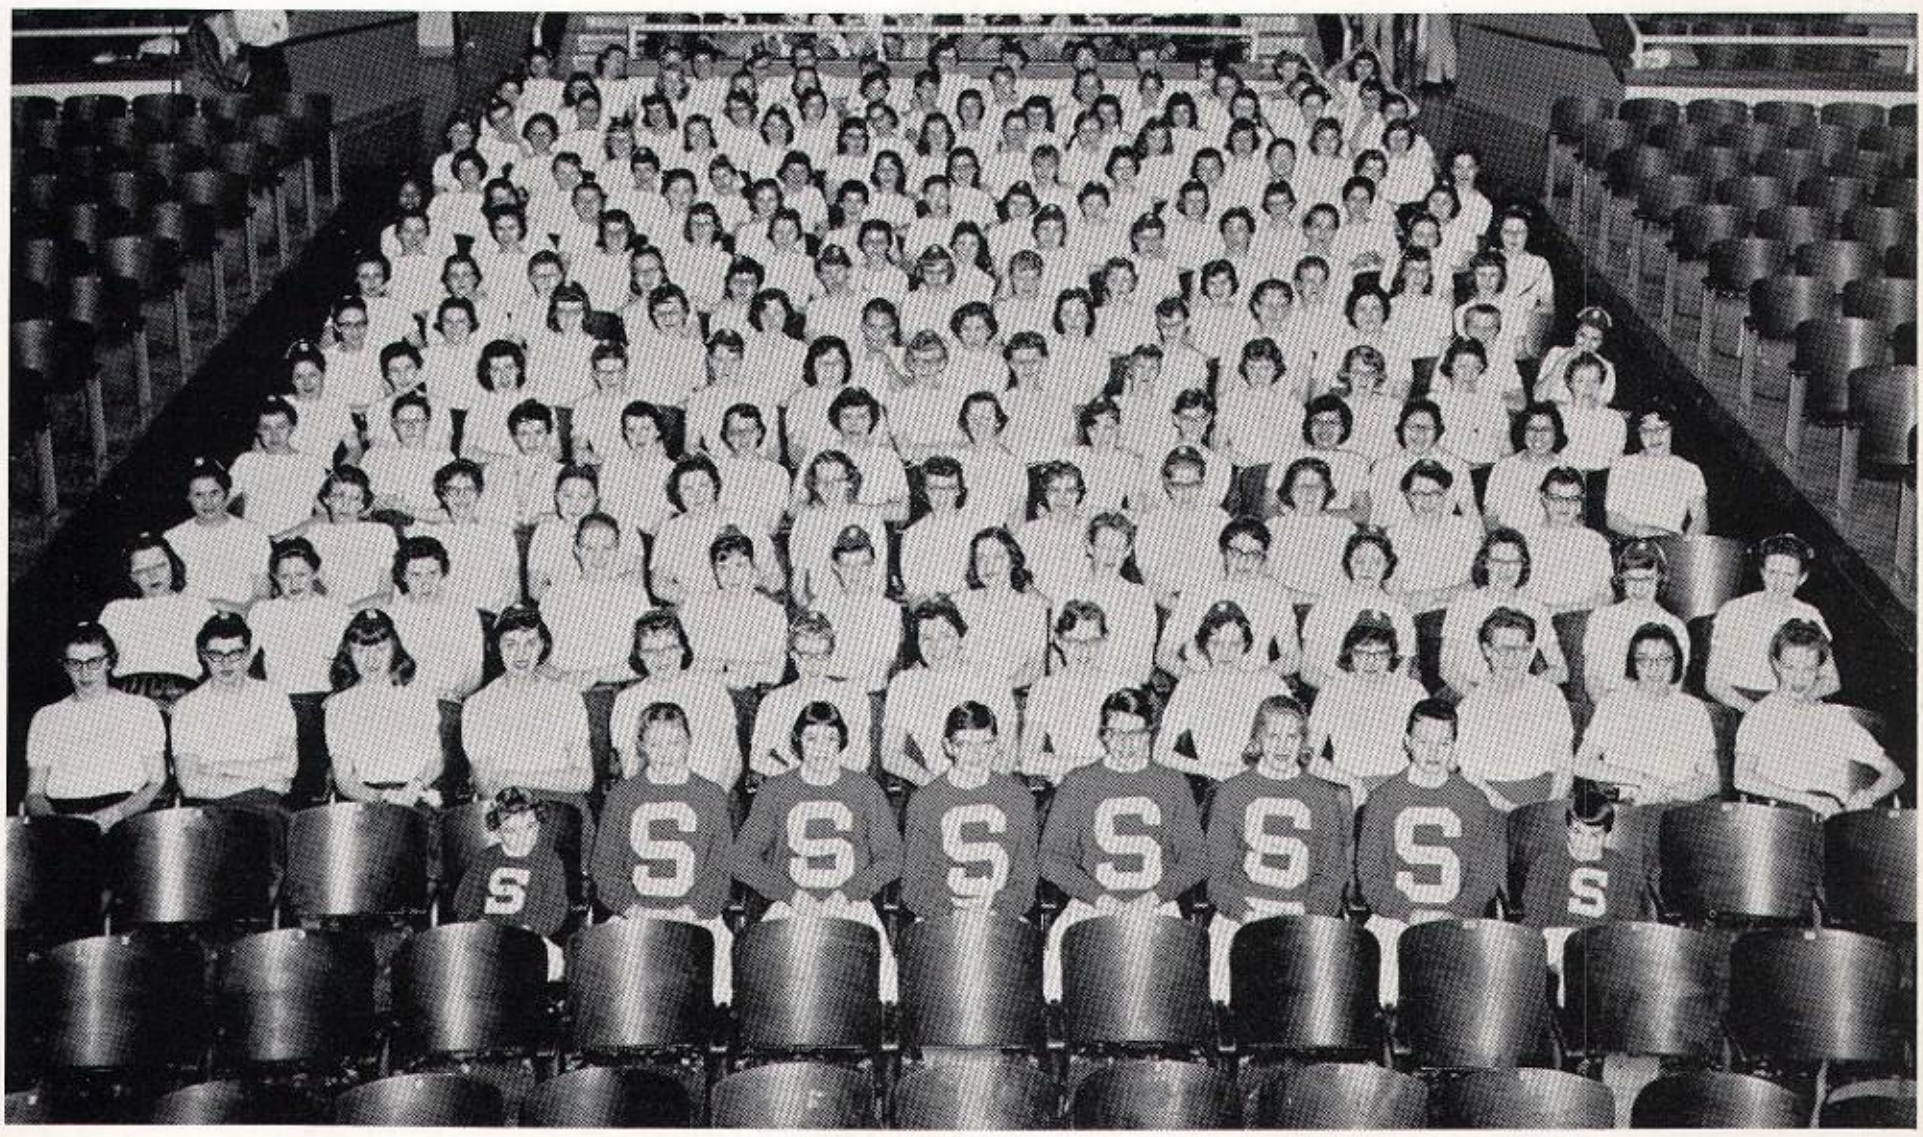
Skittens are a tradition at S.H.S. It is their job to create and maintain our school spirit and with their bright red and white outfits, beanies, and flying shakeroos, they add color as well.

This year's group participated enthusiastically in many projects. Together with "S" Club, they gave a semi-formal dance honoring the Big Ten football champs. In January, the girls helped the March of Dimes with a white elephant sale and a campaign to sell potato chips. The climax for the Skittens came with the crowning of the King at the annual semi-formal dance.



Cheerleaders and Skittens, in the traditional red and white, are always present to back the team.

Season's Summary

The Scottsbluff Bearcats had a very impressive football season, winning eight, losing one, and tying one. They roared to victory in their first four games, and then defeated Lincoln, 34-6, for only the second win in nineteen games with the Links. The 'Cats lost a close one to North Platte, 7-6, and then played a tough Laramie, Wyo., team and gained a 14-14 tie. After handing Alliance a defeat, the 'Cats played the Kearney Bearcats, 35-0, for the title, and in the finale of the season, the 'Cats downed Grand Island, 28-6, for the Big Ten Championship.

Johnny "Mustang" Williamson and Kent Green provided the scoring punch. Larry "the Boot" Wheeler kicked thirty-seven out of forty-five points after touchdowns. The defensive play was symbolic of the all-out team effort which characterized the season.

'Cats Tie for West

Season's Summary

The 1957-58 Scottsbluff Bearcat team compiled an 11-5 regular season record. After losing three quickies, the 'Cats came back to win three. Next, the 'Cats lost their only conference game to North Platte, 36-33. Then the boys ripped through eight straight opponents. They lost the finale of the regular season to Cheyenne in an overtime. Coach Warren Brown's squad tied North Platte for the West Big Ten Championship with a 7-1 record.

Gary McClanahan, Larry Krause, and Larry Chatterton provided the scoring punch. Bill Comstock was the defensive standout of the season while Johnny Williamson was the floor general of the team. Bill Reichenberg stepped into the lineup in a crucial period to give the Cherry and White an added scoring punch. Through their superb defensive brand of ball, the Bearcats made every game a contest.

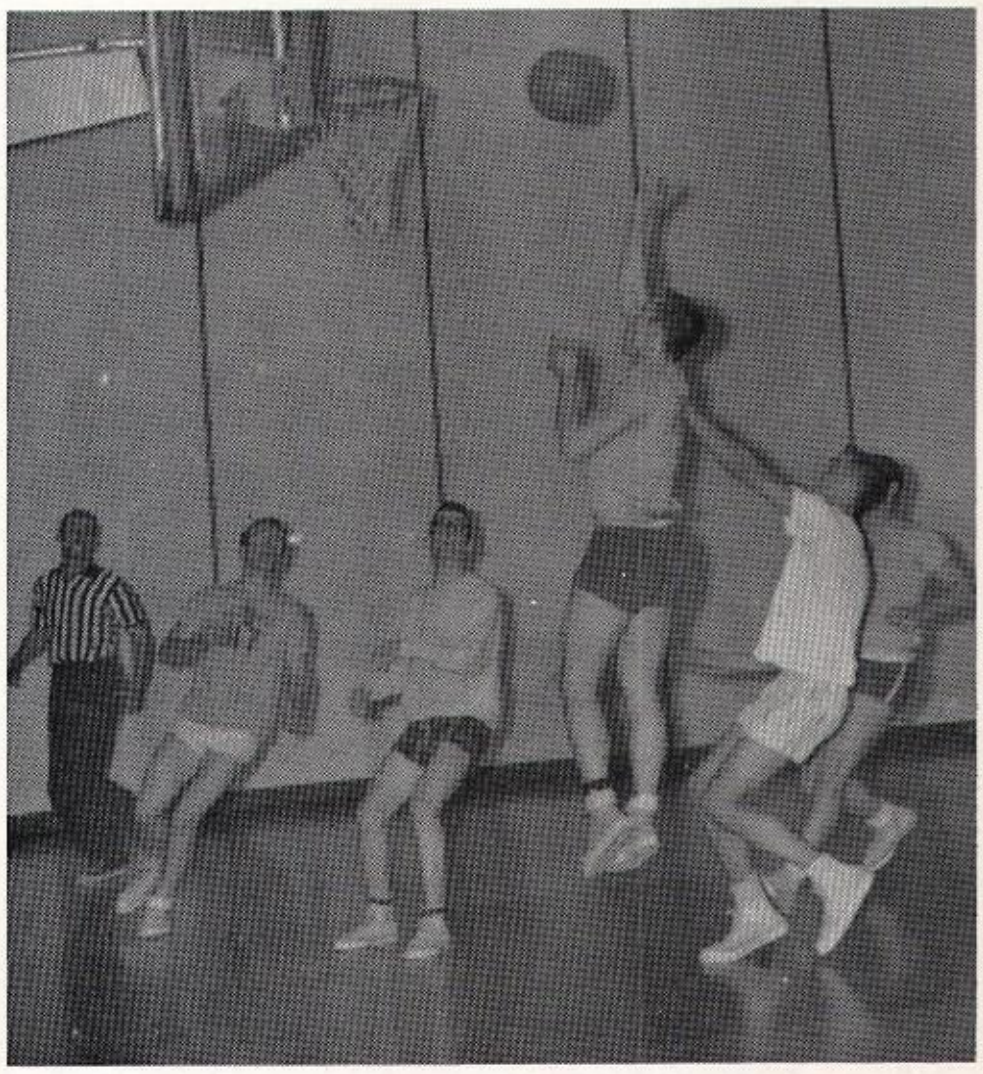
Intramural Spirit High at S.H.S.

The basketball intramural program was set up for the purpose of giving boys who do not participate in inter-school competition an opportunity to play basketball. In the Freshman-Sophomore League, the Wino's beat the SEOS, 23-16, and in the Junior-Senior League, the Gassers beat the WeSobbs, 36-35. Gassers team members were F. Pardun, H. Spurrier, M. Specht, H. Atkins, R. Davis, J. Pointer, and E. Alldredge. WeSobbs members were L. Wheeler, C. Plaster, B. Carleton, D. Barraza, K. Green, and D. Anstine. Wino's members were B. Graves, R. Austin, T. Popp, E. Henderson, and G. Meieneke. SEOS members were M. Abbott, D. Alldredge, T. Carleton, G. Harris, J. Steele, and J. Wilks. Mr. H. A. Nelson coached the Intramural Basketball.



Curt Plaster lays up for a basket.

Wrestling was introduced at S.H.S. this year. The sport was confined to intra-school activities. Its hope in the future is to compete with other schools. Wrestling coach was Mr. Robert Wilson.

New this year, bowling was sponsored by the Bowl Arena and the Echoes staff. Over sixty students and faculty members participated in this activity. Faculty member Ted C. Tow was league secretary.
